

Dillon Point Walk/Ride (Benicia State Recreation Area)

trailhead

trail not suitable for standard road bikes

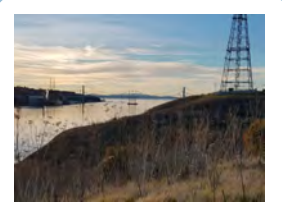

Quick Facts

Difficulty Moderate
Distance 1.5 miles
Type Loop
Time 30 minutes

This walkride starts at the picnic area just before the Forrest Deaner Native Plant Botanic Garden. Park at the north end of the parking lot and look for a dirt path up the hill. This walk is part of the San Francisco Bay Trail and Bay Area Ridge Trail.

When you reach the first fork bear left. As you ascend the hill, you will reach an overlook of the Carquinez Strait. Continue on the trail and you will return to the starting point.

This trail is suitable for mountain and hybrid bikes.

Looking west to the Carquinez and Zampa Bridges

Looking east to Mount Diablo